

Essential Instructional Practices in Early Literacy: K-3 Series PD

Registration is FREE

Ready to make a positive impact on your students' literacy development?

Join us for a 5 session literacy series, focused on the 10 Essential Instructional Practices for K-3 classrooms. The use of these practices in every classroom every day could make a measurable positive difference in the State's literacy achievement and in your classroom! See Essential Practice Document for more info.

*Attendance to all 5 sessions is encouraged, but not mandatory. SCECH's provided for those attending 2 or more sessions. For questions, contact Kristal White (Lapeer ISD Early Literacy Coach & Consultant) at 810-796-2201 ext. 4031 or kwhite@lapeerisd.org.

Rsvp: Here!

Who: K-3 teachers & administrators

What: Each session will cover two Essential Practices. You will learn about the research behind the Essentials, as well as practical and effective ways to implement each Instructional Practice in your classroom.

When: 4:30-6:30pm

September 26th
Essential Practice #1: Literacy motivation and engagement
Essential Practice #8: Abundant reading materials & opportunities

October 17th
Essential Practice #3: Small group & individual instruction
Essential Practice #9: Ongoing observation & assessment

January 16th
Essential Practice #2: Effective read alouds
Essential Practice #7: Intentional efforts to build vocabulary

February 20th
Essential Practice #4: Phonological awareness
Essential Practice #5: Explicit instruction in letter-sounds & phonics

March 20th
Essential Practice #6: Research and standards aligned writing instruction
Essential Practice #10: Collaboration with families

Where: Lapeer Ed & Tech Center
690 N. Lake Pleasant Rd. Attica 48412